

Wishing you every blessing in this Easter Season and the deep inner peace the Risen Lord brings into our lives.

Royal Commission Hearings last week I extend my very real thanks to so many of you who supported me and others in prayer last week during the Hearings at the Royal Commission into Abuse. I have received so many messages from people who prayed for me and others, the prayerful support and the care of so many people was tangible. It was a hard week, but I was privileged to offer an apology to Abuse victims and to assure them that we were listening and we will listen to them. Please accept my thanks for your prayerful support. John
